Removing harmful objects off the road

“ The Prophet (pbuh) said:

Faith has 70 or 60 some odd branches. The highest branch is the declaration that is ‘There is no deity save Allah.’ The humblest of which is the removal of harm from a public path, and modesty is a branch of faith.

What a beautiful community it is when its members collaborate to beautify it! The Messenger of Allah encouraged us to this societal association and announced plentiful reward from Allah. Next time you see a harmful matter on the path, see it as your duty to remove it, and never feel “too good” to pick up something dirty.
